Always a Fall favorite, this year's Van Buren tours will incorporate a little something different. In addition to seeing the sites and shopping, there will be demonstrations by weavers, potters and blacksmiths. Hands-on class options in Raku horse pottery, Watercolor painting, and Woodsmithing (registration fee includes your supplies and finished product).

We will tour the Hotel Manning in Keosauqua where we will learn the history of the area and enjoy a delicious lunch. Classes and tours of the rose garden and bridge in the afternoon. And, of course, no trip to the Villages of Van Buren is complete without a stop at The Dutchman's Store! Bring your shopping list and plan to stock up for the winter.
