Thurs, July 13 - Fri, July 14, 2023

= minimal walking, options for sitting or carts

Journey to Northwest Iowa to explore Loess Hills and Le Mars

This beautiful northwest area of Iowa features the scenic landscape of the Loess Hills. The unique formation of the hills are made almost entirely of windblown soils.

July will be prime time for visiting the Loess Hills Lavender Farm. We will tour the farm which has over 2000 plants with over 10 varieties. You can browse the artwork of over 40 local artisans and partake in a Lavender Tasting, as well!

After a scatter lunch and shopping in Le Mars, we will tour the famous Wells Blue Bunny Visitor Center. Le Mars is known as the "Ice Cream Capital of the World" for a reason...this is one tasting you won't want to miss!

Secure your reservation with a $150 deposit!

The highlight of the day is sure to be the evening dinner and live performance at The Browns Century Theater. The Browns perform a variety of shows in this beautifully restored, state of the art Music Theater.

Day 2 - Bertrand Steamboat Museum

After some shopping and lunch at The Master's Hands, we will travel to the Bertrand Steamboat Museum. The Bertrand was a steamboat which sank on April 1, 1865, while carrying cargo up the Missouri River, after hitting a snag north of Omaha. Half the cargo was recovered during an excavation in 1968, more than 100 years later. Today, the artifacts are displayed in this museum and are a time capsule of everyday life during that period.
